

Please keep the no call telephone program going. It is wonderful to have our lives back without the constant obnoxious phone calls, especially after work hours, from solicitors. I cannot believe that these people will now have the right to call on peoples cell phones as well. I have just signed up to receive not calls on my cell phone also. Thank you for listening. Sonja Moskalik